Grace Place Announces 3rd Annual Wreaths of Grace Online Auction

NAPLES, FL — Grace Place for Children & Families is celebrating the holiday season with the 3rd Annual Wreaths of Grace Auction, presented in partnership with the Interior Design Society of Naples. The online auction opens Saturday, November 15 at 12 PM and runs through Wednesday, November 19 at 6:30 PM. Wreaths can be viewed and bid on at <https://wreath2025.givesmart.com>.

The event features one-of-a-kind holiday wreaths designed by some of Naples' top interior designers. Each wreath will be available for online bidding, with proceeds benefiting Grace Place programs that support children and families in the Golden Gate community.

Wreaths are on public display now through November 19 at SWAY in the Galleria Shoppes at Vanderbilt (2355 Vanderbilt Beach Rd #130, Naples), giving guests a chance to preview these unique works of art before the auction closes.

"Wreaths of Grace is a beautiful reminder of the creativity and generosity that make this community so special," said Lära Fisher, CEO of Grace Place for Children & Families. "Each wreath is a gift of hope that helps us continue empowering children and families through education."

To participate, visit wreath2025.givesmart.com to register, browse the wreaths, and start bidding.

ABOUT GRACE PLACE FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Grace Place for Children and Families, founded in 2004, is a nonprofit family literacy center committed to providing pathways out of poverty by educating children and families. Grace Place enrolls over 1,300 individuals in its education programs each year, offering the nationally recognized early learning initiative Bright Beginnings (nursery to 4 years old), which involves a parent in the early learning needed to be kindergarten ready, and comprehensive School Age Programs (grades K-12) funded by the Florida Department of Education. The organization also provides Adult Education courses and operates a Food Pantry serving hundreds of families weekly.
