Hearts of Grace Are Hitting Naples Restaurants This Valentine's Day

Naples, FL — This Valentine's Day, Grace Place for Children and Families is spreading kindness throughout Naples with its Hearts of Grace initiative, featuring ceramic hearts hand-painted by Grace Place students.

On February 14, select local restaurants will help bring Hearts of Grace to the community by giving them out to diners. Participating restaurants include Barbatella, Estia, Grappino, The Claw Bar, The Hangout by Two Guys, Sea Salt, and True Food Kitchen.

"Hearts of Grace is a way to spread awareness about Grace Place and the free educational programs we provide for children and families in the Golden Gate community," said Lära Fisher, CEO of Grace Place. "Through these hearts, our students are sharing gratitude, creativity, and hope with the wider community."

Grace Place is a nonprofit family literacy organization dedicated to providing pathways out of poverty by educating children and families, with programs focused on learning, English literacy, confidence, opportunity, and college and career readiness.

Spot a Heart of Grace this Valentine's Day and share in the joy our students are spreading.

ABOUT GRACE PLACE FOR CHILDREN AND FAMILIES

Grace Place for Children and Families, founded in 2004, is a nonprofit family literacy center committed to providing pathways out of poverty by educating children and families. Grace Place enrolls over 1,300 individuals in its education programs each year, offering the nationally recognized early learning initiative Bright Beginnings (nursery to 4 years old), which involves a parent in the early learning needed to be kindergarten ready, and comprehensive School Age Programs (grades K-12) funded by the Florida Department of Education. The organization also provides Adult Education courses and operates a Family Food Distribution program serving the enrolled families.
